CLASS HISTORY

FRESHMAN YEAR

We, the class of 1962, entered North Andover High School with the anticipation that our next four years would be enriched with knowledge and companionship.

Our class performed its first official duty by electing the following class officers: Thomas Swithenbank, president; Barbara Bresnahan, vice-president; and Mary Lou Donahue, secretary-treasurer.

New members of our faculty were Mrs. Grossman, Mr. Robitaille, and Mr. Keegan.

The annual Brooks School Scholarships were presented to Thomas Swithenbank and Richard Warchol for their high marks on the rigorous examination.

John Moran, an outstanding basketball player, received a trophy and a position on the Tech Tourney Freshman All Star Team.

For his superior performance on the low hurdles, Richard Cummings received a varsity letter, a notable achievement for a Freshman.

In this year's school play, entitled, "Time Out For Ginger," Patrese O'Brien and Thomas Chappell represented our class.

Richard Moynihan became N. A.'s first student in first-year Latin to earn a gold pin for proficiency in a nation-wide contest.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

On returning to high school the following September, our class felt as though it were no longer to be treated as young and unseasoned.

We elected Carolyn Andrews, president; Diane Fournier, vice-president; and Sharon McComish, secretary-treasurer.

New additions to our faculty this year were Mr. Hall and Mr. Forgetta.

Barbara Bresnahan became the only sophomore on the cheering squad.

This year marked the first time members of our class were eligible for membership in the National Honor Society. Meeting the qualifications of leadership, scholarship, character and service, Carole Zimny and Catherine Ceplikas were inducted.

In April of 1960 a large number of parents, teachers, and students attended a meeting in the Veterans' Hall at North Andover High School and overwhelmingly approved the formation of a Parent-Teacher-Student Association. This event marked the first time in North Andover's history that students themselves participated in such an organization.

JUNIOR YEAR

After a summer of fun and relaxation we returned with an exuberant impatience to get back to our studies and make this year meaningful.

Voted in as our junior class officers were Joan Schruender, president; Diane Fournier, vice-president; Barbara Bresnahan, secretary-treasurer.

We welcomed, with pleasure, Mr. Licare, Mr. Graham, and Mr. Hull to our faculty.

In October we received our class rings and wore them with great pride.

At a school assembly six juniors were inducted into the National Honor Society. Those received were: Daniel Day, Marie Gilberto, John Moran, Kathleen Murphy, Patrese O'Brien, and Sallyann Tomarchio.

CLASS HISTORY

Members of our class who participated in the school play, "Ask Any Girl," were Patrese O'Brien, Nancy LaBelle, and Diane Gebelein. Patrese O'Brien was honored by being selected to act in the Brooks School play "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

Those chosen as captains and co-captains of our sports were, Noel Beaudoin and Richard Moynihan, football; John Moran, basketball; John Ingram, wrestling; Charles Vose and John Moran, track; David Roberts and Richard Moynihan, baseball; Bonnie King and Gayle Sanborn, girls' basketball; Carolyn Andrews and Joan Schruender, field hockey.

This year five members of our class, JoAnne Lee, Mary Lou Donahue, Cathy Ceplikas, Diane Fournier and Jeannie Porter, became regular cheerleaders, and Barbara Bresnahan became head cheerleader.

John Moran was awarded the Harvard Club of Andover Award for his high scholastic record.

The prom was the social highlight of the year. Serving on the prom committee were our class officers and Noel Beaudoin, Cathy Ceplikas, Mike Lampros and June Goodhue.

SENIOR YEAR

We returned in September of 1961 as seniors. It was hard for us to believe this year was our final one at high school.

Elected into office were: John Moran, president; Frank Dugan, vice-president; and John Murphy, secretary-treasurer.

We took great pleasure in welcoming Miss Wharton, Mr. Sullivan, Mr. Roche, and Mr. Buckley to our faculty.

We had four classmates inducted into the National Honor Society: Carolyn Andrews, Sandy Zigelis, Mary Lou Donahue and Richard Moynihan. Catherine Ceplikas was elected president of the Honor Society; Carole Zimny, vice-president; and Patrese O'Brien, secretary-treasurer. Counselors chosen were John Moran and Kathleen Murphy.

Janet Nicolosi was selected Football Queen. Her court included Jeanne Porter, Diane Fournier, JoAnne Lee, and Barbara Bresnahan.

Patrese O'Brien joined the cheering squad.

The school play "Love Is Contagious," featured three seniors in its cast: Nancy LaBelle, Carole Zimny and Diane Gebelein, who all did a marvelous job.

Richard Moynihan was voted our Good Government Day Representative, and the faculty and students chose Catherine Ceplikas as the recipient of the D.A.R. Good Citizen Award.

At the class meeting, green and white were designated our class colors. "Counting time is not as important as making time count," was decided upon as our class motto.

The prom committee was headed by the class officers and assisted by Gayle Sanborn, Joan Schruender and Noel Beaudoin.

The Board of Trade awarded black blazers to Catherine Ceplikas, Carole Zimny, Marie Gilberto, and Patrese O'Brien for their high scholastic average for three years. Other awards made to the seniors by the Board of Trade were to John Moran, Richard Moynihan, Sallyann Tomarchio, Kathleen Murphy and Daniel Day.

Respectively submitted,
Rita and Chuck

President Catherine Ceplikas
Vice-President Carole Zimny
Secretary-Treasurer Patrese O'Brien
Counselors John Moran—Kathleen Murphy

The members are selected on the basis of their scholarship, character, leadership, and service, and they are expected to maintain these standards of the National Honor Society.

The society sponsored a "Jingle Bell Hop" on December 15, 1961. Several members attended a "Get Acquainted Party" sponsored by Haverhill High School Honor Society on January 27, 1962.

In 1961, a guidance publication was donated to the school by the Honor Society. Each year an English award is given by the society to the senior who has maintained the highest average in English for four years.

Some members have given their services in tutoring underclassmen and helping with the Student Council Scholarship Drive.

Plans for the dance seem well underway.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Advisor Mrs. Maurice F. Grossman
President John Moran
Vice-President Rita Thibault
Secretary-Treasurer Kathleen Murphy

Small groups study and plan various projects.

The 1961-62 social calendar was drawn up by a Student Council Committee.

All members staffed the information desk, and some members patrolled the cafeteria during lunch period.

The council sponsored the election of a football queen and the election of a good neighbor of tomorrow.

Five N. A. delegates attended the Eastern Massachusetts District Conference of Student Councils at Acton-Boxboro Regional High School in November.

The Annual Scholarship Drive was conducted by the council, and a successful tag day augmented the scholarship fund.

MATHEMATICS CLUB

The Mathematics Club participates in monthly contests with other high schools in the Eastern Massachusetts Mathematics League. The purpose of the league is to stimulate a greater interest in math among high school students. The proceeds from the club's dance were used to award trophies to high scoring members and to pay membership in the league.

Contenders in mathematics contests try to remain cool and collected.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

Faculty Advisor Mr. John Robinson
School Photographer Ronald Wilson
Dark Room Technician James Batterbury

Mr. John Robinson, Ronald Wilson, James Batterbury.

The photography club's candidate members are given assignments in order to qualify for membership. Those chosen are selected on the bases of their interest in photography, their respect of photographic equipment, and the quality of their trial work.

The club has been actively involved in taking pictures for the Teen Age Tribune and candid pictures for the year book.

Under the direction of Mr. James W. McDonald, faculty advisor, the members of the Dramatic Club again successfully presented the annual school play and a delightful Christmas assembly.

The Valentine Dance, conducted by the club, was an affair enjoyed by all and at which time a "Queen of Hearts" was crowned.

Selected for parts in the school play.

SCIENCE CLUB

Advisors Mr. Thomas Regan, Mr. Vincent Foderaro
President Robert Coppeta
Vice President Cheryl Lewis
Secretary-Treasurer Daniel Breen

The Annual Science Fair was held on February 16, with all members taking part and displaying their projects. In January, Robert Coppeta was chosen as Western Electric's representative to attend the High School Science Students' Program at Bell Telephone Laboratories, Inc., at Murray Hill, New Jersey. Mr. Regan accompanied Bob, and both felt that this program was a very worthwhile and interesting experience.

BAND

Concert-Mistress Karleen Smith

COLOR GUARD

Douglas Mealey
 Jack Toomey

Raymond Minardi
 Peter Broderick

During the school year the band played at football games, rallies, and the tech tournament. The group marched at several local parades and received honorable mention and a gold certificate for its performance in the annual Lawrence Christmas Parade.

Music for a special Christmas assembly, exchange concerts, an annual Spring Concert, and graduation was provided by the band.

The band participated in: THE NORTHEAST FESTIVAL—Marblehead, ALL NEW ENGLAND SOLO & ENSEMBLE FESTIVAL—Boston University, ALL NEW ENGLAND FESTIVAL CONCERT—Kingston, ALL STATE CONCERT FESTIVAL—Pittsfield, and the NORTHEAST AUDITIONS FESTIVAL.

The band adds color and pep to football games.

Of course you'll have to eat it, dear.

As a special treat—scrambled hamburger.

"The dictator"

I can't excuse you for a fingernail ache.

Ooh—there he goes!

He's coming my way.

SPORTS

It takes more than time . . .

Back row: Ronald Wedge, Sean Fountain, Robert White, James Murphy, Anthony Ranfone, Robert Marcinuk, Harry Wilkinson, Douglas Ramsdon, Ellis Fitzpatrick, William Labelle, Cornelius Hegarty, James Sheehan. Middle row: Assistant Coach Edward Buckley, Michael Dunn, Charles Ashworth, Richard Shafer, Robert Murphy, Donald Morse, Charles Perrocchi, Richard Steinberg, Daniel Crane, Philip Cahill, Adolpho Comas, John

FOOTBALL

This year the Scarlet Knights were under the direction of Coach Sullivan. The team got off to a good start, and finished winning five out of nine hard fought games.

The team beat Methuen but lost to their other Little Three rival, Andover.

Two valuable players, Richard Moynihan, co-captain, and John Moran received injuries this season, therefore slowing down our winning capacity.

Robert Murphy and Donald Morse were chosen as co-captains for next year's team.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

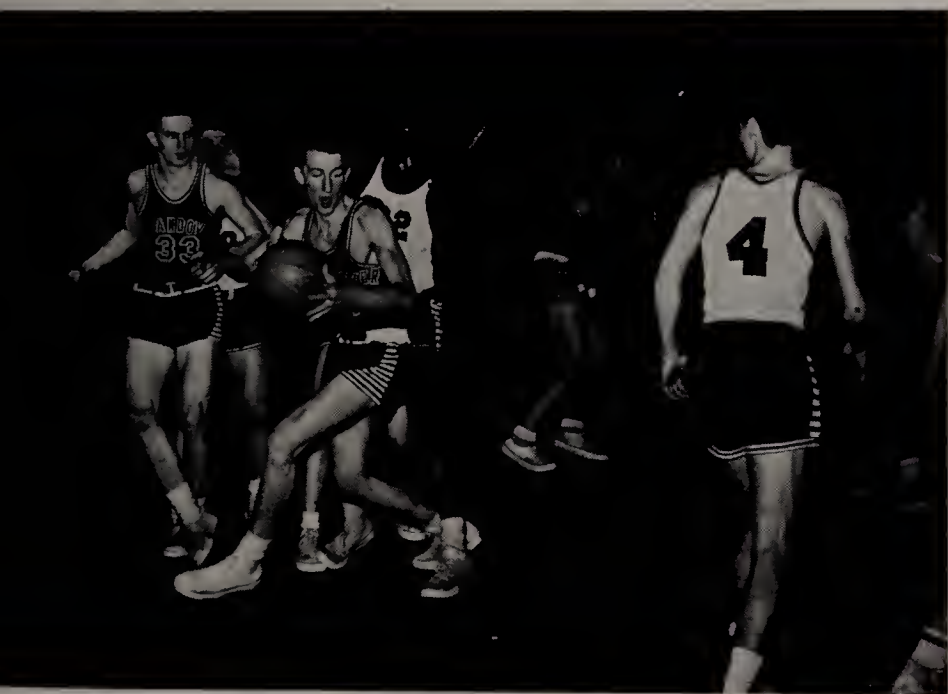

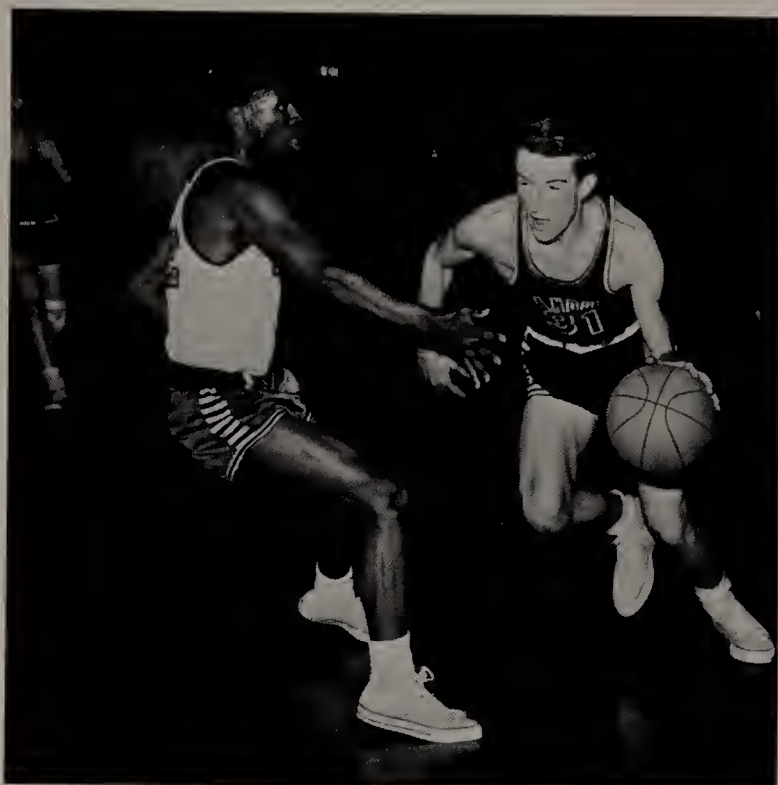

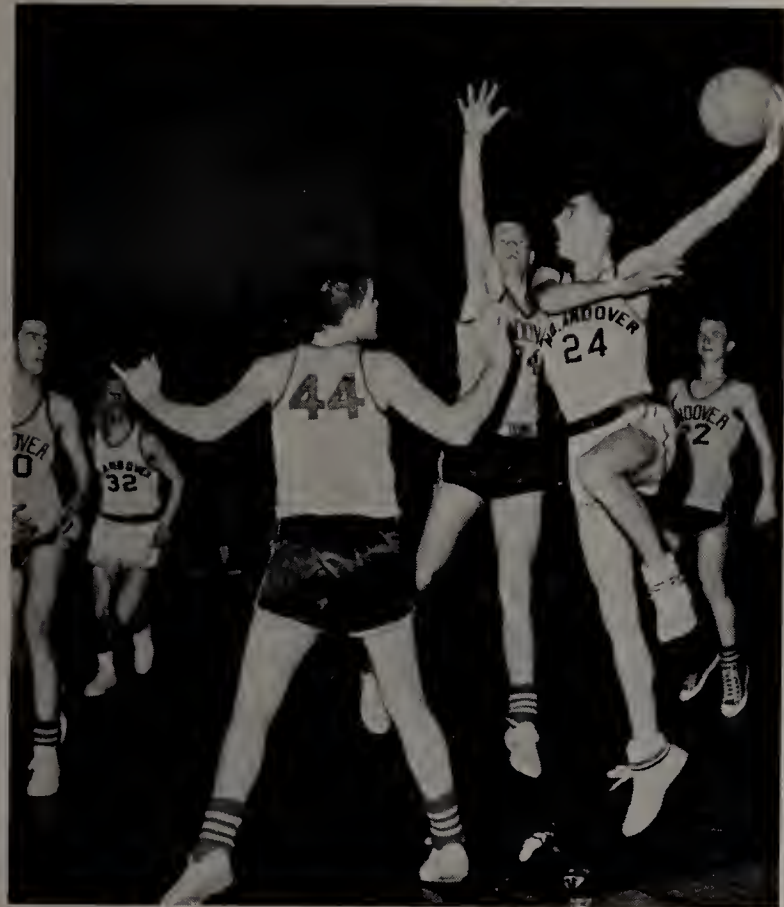

Coach Robert Licare directed our fine team in compiling a 16-2 record for the season.

The Knights retained the Little Three crown and again made an appearance in the Tech Tourney. Rockland ended our drive for the Class C title in the preliminary game.

North Andover finished second to the Chelmsford powerhouse in the Lowell Suburban League, while Pat Barry and Richard Moynihan were selected for the league's All-Star Team.

Robert Murphy and Ronald McRobbie, second-high point scorer in Greater Lawrence, will serve as next year's co-captains and lead the boys successfully on as did this year's captain, John Moran.

WRESTLING

The wrestling team, under the direction of Mr. Howard Crozier, enjoyed a successful third season. James Powers, Richard Adams, and Ronald Wedges were invaluable members of the team.

Besides its regularly scheduled meets, the team participated in the Greater Lawrence Y.M.C.A. Tournament and the Dexter, New Hampshire Tournament.

Richard Adams served as captain of the team.

The cheerleaders worked very hard all year to boost team morale and to keep the school spirit high. Besides cheering at the football and basketball games, the cheerleaders held three rallies, conducted a Halloween Hop, and participated in the P.T.S.A. "Little Three" Exhibition and Dance.

Mrs. Mildred Dimlich served as advisor of the squad.

MAJORETTES

The Majorettes were participants at all the school football games and rallies. They also marched in the Greater Lawrence Santa Claus Parade, and appeared with the high school band at the Northeastern Music Festival held at Bedford.

The advisor to the group is Mr. Clarence F. Mosher.

Back row: Coach Mildred Dimlich, Manager Sallyann Tomarchio, Janet Nicolosi, Sylvia Andrews, Carole Nicora, Roberta Morse, Helen Robinton, Barbara Fisher, Mary Corello, Janyce Summers, Ruth Moynihan, Cecile Guy, Nancy Beeley, Pamela Phelan, Assistant Manager Barbara Livesy. Front row: Jane

GIRLS' FIELD HOCKEY

Co-Captains Carolyn Andrews and Joan Schruender
Managers Sallyann Tomarchio and Barbara Livesey
Coach Mrs. Mildred Dimlich

This year's team was one of determination and enthusiasm. Even the games lost were always closely contested. Donna Kress and Natalie Medice will be the co-captains next season.

Second row: Ellen Harris, Assistant Manager; Patricia Marsan, Sharon Summers, Carolyn Phelan, Jane Phelan, Beverly Beaudoin, Sallyann Tomarchio, Manager; Mrs. Claire Sullivan,

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Although the girls' basketball team wasn't as successful as all had hoped, the team effort and spirit made up for its losses.

Dorothy Currier joined with Mrs. Claire Sullivan to coach the girls' team this year.

While co-captain Gayle Sanborn was high scorer with 205 points, co-captain Bonnie King was a great asset with her dual position as forward and guard.

The All-Star Game and the Alumnae Game added zest to the season.
